In Loving Memory... Joseph L. Kronick 1926 - 2019

On March 10th we lost our beloved Joe.

He passed away peacefully at the incredible age of 92. Joe was not only the King of Camp White Pine, but a leader in the camp community throughout North America. Joe lived and breathed camp. In 1956 he took an old fishing lodge and turned it into a magical place that has touched the lives of thousands. He taught us how to live and grow together and how to appreciate all the gifts camp gave us. He instilled in us the values of kindness, lifelong learning and to appreciate the beauty of our world. His words: Live, Love, Laugh and Learn, will be forever embedded in the hearts of everyone who has passed through the red gates of White Pine.

Outside of camp, Joe enjoyed travelling the world with his wife of 68 years, Doreen. He loved a great meal, a glass of wine and never met a dog he didn't like. Joe was also extremely philanthropic. He and Doreen started the Integra Foundation and Camp Towhee for children with learning disabilities, and ran the Out of the Cold Program at Holy Blossom Temple for many years.

At the end of his life Joe was surrounded by those he loved, sharing endless stories of an incredible man. Whether you remember Joe singing Three Blue Pigeons at the Saturday morning sing song, sitting on the office porch with a Boston terrier at his feet, or laughing that enormous laugh no one can forget, Joe will be forever a part of all of us. We will think of him whenever we hear a loon on the lake, and whenever we bend over to pick up a Buffalo. The world is a better place for having Joe Kronick in it.

We have been so touched by all the messages we have received from all over the world. So many of you reached out to share wonderful memories of Joe. We wanted to share some of these messages with all of you. To read more, please visit the online memorial book or see our posts on Facebook or Instagram.

We would like to name the new Big Rec after Joe. If you have any ideas of what the Big Rec should be called in a way that will honour Joe, please email us at info@campwhitepine.com
